Minutes

March 19, 2020

Conference call Due to COVID19

Chairman Lowell Clawson called this meeting to order at 5:06 p.m. Chairman Clawson and Clerk/Manager Sue Rigano were present in Bairoil. Board Members calling in were Vice-Chairmen Gary Waldner, Secretary-Treasurer Craig Davidson and Attorney Mike Roberts.

Gust Hatanelas and Seth Rauch were absent.

Public Comment: The COVID 19 is playing havoc with everyone. Hoping everyone stays healthy!

With no changes to the minutes of February 27, 2020 they stand as written

A motion was made by Craig Davidson and seconded by Gary Waldner to approve the agenda as presented. Motion passed.

Reports:

Landfill Supervisor Jeff Evans reported the Landfill did not have any customers this week.

The Recycling Building in Rawlins is Closed due to COVID19, so the Recycling trailer at Wamsutter was hauled to Rock Springs.

The Library in Rawlins is Closed also due to COVID19. We will be doing Conference calls for monthly meeting until things get cleared up.

Chairman Clawson asked if we had made any progress on the Port-a-Pottie situation at Wamsutter. Clerk/Manager Sue Rigano stated yes, we are going to go with Black Water Septic, but it is such a muddy mess at the Landfill we are waiting so United can get in there to pick up their units!

ORIGINAL

Old Business:

CD at Wyoming Community Bank in Riverton is up for renewal on March 28, 2020. They will not give us a new interest rate until the matures. There was a discussion ensued among board members. The CD is $200,000 we had it in for 1 year. A motion was made by Gary Waldner and seconded by Craig Davidson to have Sue Rigano check on the interest rate at Wyoming Community Bank, also the Bank of Commerce after it matures. Motion passed.

New Business:

A motion was made by Craig Davidson and seconded by Gary Waldner to pay bills Check # 16313 through Check # 16365 including all DC's and EFT's in the amount of $48,714.49. Motion passed.
